AN ACT

To repeal section 99.847, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof one new section relating to reimbursement from the special allocation fund for emergency services.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Missouri, as follows:

Section A. Section 99.847, RSMo, is repealed and one new section enacted in lieu thereof, to be known as section 99.847, to read as follows:

99.847. 1. Any district providing emergency services pursuant to chapter 190 or 321, RSMo, shall be entitled to reimbursement from the special allocation fund in the amount of at least fifty percent nor more than one hundred percent of the district's tax increment.

2. Notwithstanding the provisions of sections 99.800 to 99.865 to the contrary, no new tax increment financing project shall be authorized in any area which is within an area designated as a flood plain by the Federal Emergency Management Agency and which is located in or partly within a county with a charter form of government with greater than two hundred fifty thousand inhabitants but fewer than three hundred thousand inhabitants.

3. This subsection shall not apply to tax increment financing projects or districts approved prior to July 1, 2005, and shall allow the aforementioned tax increment financing projects to modify, amend, or expand such projects including redevelopment project costs by not more than forty percent of such project's original projected cost including redevelopment project costs which existed as of June 30,

EXPLANATION—Matter enclosed in bold-faced brackets [thus] in this bill is not enacted and is intended to be omitted in the law.
